Spacious top loader with printer compartment and ultimate „PAC" padding

This spacious top loader not only guarantees especially safe transportation of your Notebook but also provides you with plenty of room for printer, beamer or folders.
The lockable Notebook compartment with the ultimate „PAC" padding (Patented Air Chamber) protects your Notebook from all sides and especially well - even from knocks and blows!
The Notebook is simply inserted from the top. The extendible all-purpose compartment holds plenty of room for printers, beamers or folders. Pens, business cards, keys and such can be transported in the workstation in the front compartment , where they are kept in order. Cell phones can be stashed in the concealed side pocket and are always ready-to-hand, and power supply units, cables and shoulder straps find room in the designated pocket. The removable address tag on the side of the case prevents mix ups. Pleasant transportation is provided by the comfortable carry handle in combination with the elastic shoulder strap made of Neoprene. Especially handy: with the integrated zipper on the back of the case, the trolley fastening can be turned into an additional document compartment!
The modern material mix and the high-class zippers underline the special character of this case!
